Winemaking

Carefully selected parcels of shiraz from the Blights block Byrne vineyard in Northern Clare, were picked in the evening in March, left to macerate over night and crushed early the next morning. The wine was fermented in older French barrels, and left to age in oak before bottling. The 2015 vintage was one of the earliest on record and as a region the Clare Valley have been rated by James Halliday as 9/10 for conditions. Cabernet Sauvignon performed consistently in the region and the Byrne Clare Valley Cabernet is showing refinement and finesse.

Colour Deep currant red colour .

Nose Briar blackcurrant and chocolate with plummy richness

Palate Creamy oak and cedar notes overlay the blackcurrant core of the palate. Refined and elegant, the structured style shows layers of dark berry and cherry finished with soft velvet tannins.

Food Pairing: Thick cut rare steak, herbed lamb shanks slow roasted with root vegetables, pork ribs or spicy Asian dishes.
